Prayers of the People

Intercessor: Filled with the Holy Spirit, let us pray for the common good of the whole human family.

For God's holy church, gathered from every nation under heaven: May we proclaim in every language, God's mighty deeds of power. Lord, in your mercy,

People: Hear our prayer.

For the United Nations and for all dedicated to world peace: May the Spirit's power put an end to division and gather us as one. Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

For those without access to the blessings of health and learning: May we open our hearts and change the selfish ways of our world. Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

For those whose labor is difficult, for those whose hearts are closed, for those who are bereaved, and for those who have gone astray: May the Spirit comfort and heal, cleanse and restore. Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

For those who serve this community in a wide variety of ministries: May the Spirit inspire us to exercise our gifts for the common good. Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

For our Parish, as we come to the end of the Easter season: May the Spirit send us forth as witnesses to peace and reconciliation. Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

For the members of Christ's body who have gone before us in death (especially N.): May they receive virtue's sure reward and joys that never end. Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

Education for Ministry end of year celebration

This year's Education for Ministry group invites you to the end of year celebration on Monday, June 14, at 7:00 p.m. We will be honoring this year's graduates—Diane Carey-Schmitz, Martha Hogan, Roberta Goodman, and Kim Watkins—with food and drink.

If you are a former EfM student or graduate, interested in EfM in the future, or simply want to join us in celebrating the achievements of this year's graduates -- please join us! We'll be in the Brown Library or the Community Hall -- depending on the size of the crowd.

RSVP to Lisa at church: 798-6747.

Basketball News

Thank you to everyone who supported the basketball fundraiser. The school was able to raise more than $400, and our players now proudly wear new jerseys!

Brown Library Renovation Update

The carpet is laid, the window treatment is up, and lastly the Big Screen T.V. is in place and ready for instructional and entertainment use by Saint Mark's Congregation. Many thanks to Seth Bass and Tom Horner who made the last item (the T.V.) happen and Betsy who made the old T.V. etc... disappear to good uses.

Thanks to generous donations by the Men's group and the Wright family, we have closed in on the last of the expenses for the library. However, we have an outstanding debt of $340.00 left. Help make that last part of the expense go away - and contribute what you can to the final touches of the Brown Library. Make a note on your envelope or line item on your check for "Brown Library Renovation."

County of Los Angeles Household Hazardous and Electronic Waste Collection Program.

Old electronics, dried up paint cans, used up batteries. Are these things collecting in your garage and you don't know what to do with them? The County of LA "Clean LA" program will be at the Rose Bowl, Parking Lot "K" on June 5th, 2010. Call 1-888-CLEAN LA or www.CleanLA.com for more information.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF ACTS.

Narrator #1 : When the Feast of Pentecost came,

Congregation: they were all together in one place.

Narrator #2 : Without warning there was a sound like a strong wind,

Congregation: gale force—

Narrator #1 : no one could tell where it came from. It filled the whole building. Then,

Congregation: like a wildfire,

Narrator #1 : the Holy Spirit spread through their ranks,

Narrator #2 : and they started speaking in a number of different languages

Congregation: as the Spirit prompted them.

Narrator #3 : There were many Jews staying in Jerusalem just then,

Narrator #4 : devout pilgrims from all over the world.

Narrator #3 & 4: When they heard the sound, they came on the run.

Narrator #3 : Then when they heard,

Narrator #4 : one after another,

Narrator #3 & 4: their own languages being spoken,

Congregation: they were amazed.

Narrator #1 : They couldn't for the life of them figure out what was going on, and kept saying,

Congregation: "Aren't these all Galileans?"

Narrator #3 : How come we're hearing them talk in our own languages?

Narrator #1 : Parthians, Medes, and Elamites;

Narrator #1 & 2: Visitors from Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,

Narrator #1 & 2 & 3: Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene;

Narrator #1 & 2 & 3 & 4: Immigrants from Rome, both Jews and proselytes;

Congregation: Even Cretans and Arabs!

Narrator #1 : "They're speaking our languages, describing God's mighty works!"

Narrator #2 : Their heads were spinning; they couldn't make head or tail of any of it.

Narrator #3 : They talked back and forth, confused:

Congregation: "What's going on here?"

Narrator #4 : Others joked,

Congregation: "They're drunk on cheap wine."

Narrator #1 : That's when Peter stood up and, backed by the other eleven, spoke out with bold urgency:

Peter: "Fellow Jews, all of you who are visiting Jerusalem, listen carefully and get this story straight. These people aren't drunk as some of you suspect. They haven't had time to get drunk—it's only nine o'clock in the morning.

This is what the prophet Joel announced would happen:

Narrator #2 : "In the Last Days," God says,

"I will pour out my Spirit

on every kind of people:

Men's Voices: Your sons will prophesy,

Women's Voices: also your daughters;

Narrator 3: Your young men will see visions,

Narrator 4: your old men dream dreams.

Narrator 2: When the time comes,

I'll pour out my Spirit

On those who serve me, men and women both,

and they'll prophesy.

Narrator #1 : I'll set wonders in the sky above and signs on the earth below,

Blood and fire and billowing smoke,

the sun turning black and the moon blood-red,

Before the Day of the Lord arrives,

the Day tremendous and marvelous;

Congregation: And whoever calls out for help to God, will be saved."

THE WORD OF THE LORD.

Thanks be to God
