THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY
AFTER PENTECOST
LABOR DAY SUNDAY

7:45 a.m. Holy Eucharist

The Holy Gospel Matthew 6:19-24

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal, but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

“The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light; but if your eye is unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

“No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.”

Communion of the People

All who seek God and are drawn to Christ are welcome at the Lord's table. If you desire to come up for a blessing instead of communion, indicate this by crossing your arms on your chest.

At the 7:45 a.m. we offer an opportunity for prayers for yourself or a loved one – for healing, support, or thanksgiving – during communion at the altar rail.

CROP Walk Rally

We are happy to announce that Saint Mark's will host this year's CROP Walk on Sunday, Nov. 7! This annual event for Church World Services raises awareness and funds to feed the hungry and fight hunger worldwide, including right here in our community. The Saint Mark's Community will be "walking the walk". Stay posted for how you can join the Saint Mark's Parish and School Team! On Saturday, Sept. 11, a rally to recruit and inform teams for the walk will take place in our Community Hall and Library. We need a group of volunteers to set up for the rally. If you are able to help set up on Friday, Sept. 10, at 5:30 p.m. please call Joanne in the church office.

Saint Mark's 50th Anniversary Cookbook

To commemorate Saint Mark's half-century anniversary, we are asking all members of our community – both the school and the church – to contribute recipes to a Saint Mark's 50th Anniversary Cookbook. The cookbook is already underway and many families have submitted yummy recipes this summer; however, there is still time to get your recipes in. When this beautiful and useful memento from your children's elementary school goes on sale in the fall, you (and your kids!) will be disappointed if your recipes aren't in it! To submit your family recipes, please go online to <http://www2.typensave.com/>. The login is "saintmarks" and the password is "lion." If you have any questions, please contact Kristin Anderson at kristinwesta@yahoo.com or Alison Laster at aselaster@yahoo.com, or go to the "50th Anniversary Cookbook" tab in the "Parent Association" section of the Saint Mark's School website. The deadline is September 30.

Always wondered about the Trinity?

On September 25th, join Episcopalians from around the Southland at Bloy House, the Episcopal seminary in Claremont, for "Michael McGrath Solves the Mystery of the Trinity," an opportunity to explore the doctrine of the Trinity and how that doctrine is shaping our current understandings of peace and justice in the world. Dr. McGrath's ability to make even the most difficult subject matter, including the doctrine of the Trinity, meaningful and understandable has made him one of the most beloved faculty members of Bloy House.

The lecture is from 4:30 to 6:30, followed by dinner in the Broken Loaf Dining Hall. Cost of the lecture is $15; the dinner is $10 for those who wish to continue the discussions and enjoy some fellowship with other Episcopalians. Reservations for dinner must be made in advance. Registration for both dinner and the lectures can be made by contacting ETSCregistrar@cst.edu. Please register by Monday September 20.
